Allowance

1. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's Amendment, filed 30 June 2005. The changes and remarks disclosed therein were considered.
2. Claims 1-7 are pending in the application.
3. Claims 1-7 are allowance.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

There is no teaching or suggestion in the prior art to:

“a second data group selection switch that is connected to the common active regions of a second subset of the plurality of register output selection switches via a plurality of third wires having third lengths that are shorter than the first lengths, the first and second data group selection switches being disposed approximately a same distance from the first and second subsets of the plurality of register output selection switches in a data output circuit” as claimed in the independent claim 1; or

“a first data group selection switch that is connected to the common active region of a first subset of the plurality of register output selection switches in a data output circuit” as claimed in the independent claim 3; or

“a data group selection switches that is connected to the plurality of register output selection switches by a plurality of second wires having second lengths that are shorter than the first lengths of a data output circuit” as claimed in the independent claim 5; or

“a second data group selection switch that is connected to a second subset of the plurality of register output selection switches via a second line having a second

length that is approximately equal to the first length of a data output circuit” as claimed in the independent claim 6; or

“a plurality of overlap prevention control signal lines respective ones of which are connected to pairs of the plurality of register output selection switches in a data output circuit” as claimed in the independent claim 7.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
